Scottish Training for Alcohol Retailers
and Sellers

Any business licensed to sell alcohol, including small pubs, retailers, large night clubs, cafés, restaurants, hotels and sports facilities, is required by law to provide staff with approved training. After completing this online training, your Scotland-based alcohol retail and serving staff will have the certificate they need to legally sell and serve alcohol.

Areas covered

- Scottish licensing law
- Licence types and the responsibilities of licence holders
- Licensing standards officers
- Constraints and requirements of premises licenses
- Protection of children and young persons
- Responsible practices in the retail of alcohol

Who is it aimed at?

All alcohol sellers and servers in Scotland who need to meet the legal certification requirements.

Multi-device compatible

This course is compatible with most popular desktops, tablets and mobile devices.
